Kendall College
High School Completion Status

Your 2014-2015 FAFSA application has been selected for review in a process called "Verification".

You are required to provide ONE of the following documents to the Office of Financial Aid that indicates your high school completion status.

- A final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- An official GED Transcript that indicates you passed the exam or a state-authorized high school equivalent certificate.
- If you completed your secondary education in a foreign country, the “secondary school leaving certificate” or other similar document.
- An official academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree (credits do not have to be acceptable at Kendall College).
- If you are a homeschooled student from a state where state law requires you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If you are a homeschooled student from a state where state law does not require you to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you completed and includes a statement that you successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.
